John, Apostle and Evangelist

St. John the Apostle was one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus and traditionally believed to be the author of the three Letters of John, the Fourth Gospel, and possibly the Revelation to John in the New Testament.

John was banished by the Roman authorities to the Greek island of Patmos, where, according to tradition, he wrote the Book of Revelation. According to Tertullian (in The Prescription of Heretics) John was banished after being plunged into boiling oil in Rome and suffering nothing from it.

Reflection for December.

Christmas is fast approaching and again it's that time of year when we remember, Christmas is not just about exchanging gifts but about reflecting on the profound gift of Christ. The birth of Jesus signifies God's faithfulness to us and His desire to restore the broken relationship between humanity and Himself. It is a reminder of the peace, joy, and love that Jesus came to bring, not just to individuals, but to the world.

So, as we gear up toward Christmas Day, as we begin planning and buying gifts. Let's remember the greatest gift we ever received. The gift of love, of hope, of a restoration and reconciliation. The gift of Jesus.

Merry Christmas!

Fr Darren
